

Northern Australia Climate Program

WHERE & WHEN:

Bouliia Shire Hall

16th March 2021

8.30am – 2.00pm

Morning tea and lunch provided

KEY LEARNINGS WILL INCLUDE:

- When is it likely to rain? How much?
- Find, use and assess relevant climate tools and information
- Livestock nutrition requirements in 'green droughts' and wetter seasons
- Heat Stress in cattle and possible solutions

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Associate Prof John Gaughan

University Of Queensland
Heat Stress in cattle

Dr. Chelsea Jarvis

University of Southern Queensland (USQ)
Northern Australia Climate Program

Sarah Malloy

NACP Climate Officer

REGISTER YOUR INTEREST NOW

Sarah Malloy

Phone: 0747461206

Email: Sarah.Malloy@usq.edu.au

Queensland
Government