

New Drought Preparedness Program for Livestock Businesses

Visit our Thargomindah pop-up office

Bulloo Shire Council has invited the following service providers to Thargomindah to assist livestock businesses to;

- Complete a Farm Business Resilience Plan and apply for the Queensland Government QRIDA Drought Preparedness Program

All providers will be available to discuss and answer any questions about this program and the Farm Business Planning Process.

Updates will be provided from Leonie Brassey, Agforce Southwest Regional Manager, and the National Recovery & Resilience Agency – Maree Tulley.

Specialists include;

- Department of Agriculture and Fisheries - Caitlyn Kerr
- Rural Financial Counselling Service- Angie Bowden
- Rural Solutions Inc- Emma Bryant
- QRIDA - Terry Pulsford
- Queensland Health- Peter Bradford

Walk in or book an appointment time with a service provider. Please contact Donna Hobbs for details.

Date

19 May 2022

Time

8am – 2pm

Address

Echidna Room

RSVP
& Information

Donna Hobbs

46 218 000

dannah@bulloo.qld.gov.au

Grazing Futures Livestock Business Resilience improves drought preparedness and viability of Queensland livestock producers and is jointly funded by the Australian Government's Future Drought Fund and the Queensland Government.