

Managing Giant Rat's Tail Grass

Giant Rat's Tail Grass

Giant Rat's Tail grass presents a serious threat to the environment and impacts on agricultural production, animal health and economic viability. Discussions will center on the identification of weedy Sporobolus grasses (which includes Giant Rat's Tail), preventing spread and establishment and variety of control measures depending on the infestation level & location.

Topics will include:

Identify Giant Rat's Tail and apply basic biosecurity principles to prevent spread Control Giant Rat's Tail grass.

Who should attend?

Anyone interested in improving their land and pastures through the management of this invasive weed.

Details

Date: Wednesday 21st June 2017

Time: 9:00 am to 1:00 pm

Venue: Tamrookum Memorial Hall, crn of Mount Lindesay Hwy & Tamrookum Church Rd, Qld 4285

Speakers: Healthy Land and Water, NSW DPI officer and experienced community members.

Please RSVP by 19th June 2017 at

<https://managinggrrtamrookum.eventbrite.com.au> or contact Michelle Eckersley – Ph: 0457 106 252,

E: michelle.e@hlw.org.au or Dennis Gannaway –

Ph: 0407 001 916, E: dennis.g@hlw.org.au

This event is delivered by Healthy Land and Water through the Regional Landcare Facilitator program supported through funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare Programme and the Queensland Government's Healthy Country Program.

