

LANDHOLDER FIELD DAYS

Pasture ID, Legumes and Forage Budgeting

Tuesday 18th April
 Spyglass Research Station
Lynd Highway, Basalt

8:30am – 12pm
 Morning tea provided

Thursday 20th April
 Alligator Creek- JCU Legume Site
236 Williams Road, Alligator Creek

9:00am – 1pm
 Morning tea provided

Hear from a range of grazing and pasture specialists on:

- Identification of northern pasture species from DAF grazing scientist Peter O'Reagain.
- Understanding the value of different pasture species.
- Introduction to forage budgeting and ways to assess the quantity of pasture available for grazing.

Plant ID: Landholders can bring a plant for ID in a clear, sealed plastic bag.*

Contact Brad Hough for more details or to register
brad.hough@daf.qld.gov.au 0499 850 158

RSVP 13th April

Hear from a range of pastures experts including:

- JCU legume expert Chris Gardiner on JCU and Agrimix legume research.
- Agrimix's Mark Keating on promising legume lines.
- DAF and NQDT Extension officers Bec Clapperton and Joe O'Reagain on pasture budgeting for more legumes.

Plant ID: Landholders can bring a plant for ID in a clear, sealed plastic bag.*

Contact Joe O'Reagain for more details or to register
joe.oreagain@nqdrytropics.com.au 0439 332 709

RSVP: 17th April

Great Barrier
 Reef Foundation

Queensland
 Government

Herding Change Through Grassroots Recovery is funded by the partnership between the Australian Government's Reef Trust and the Great Barrier Reef Foundation. The Department of Agriculture and Fisheries Reef Grazing Extension Services are funded through the Queensland Government Reef Water Quality Program.