

Farm Business Resilience Program

Future drought assistance...

Have you got questions for us?

The Blackall-Tambo Shire and surrounding Shires have recently had their drought status lifted. This has changed the way drought assistance will be delivered in the future, with assistance now focusing on drought preparedness through the Farm Business Resilience Program.

The Department of Agriculture and Fisheries, Queensland Rural and Industry Development Authority and Rural Financial Counselling Service Southern Queensland will be at the Blackall Sales for a chat and to answer any questions you may have. Come and see us to discuss:

- From the Drought Relief Assistance Scheme (DRAS) to the Farm Business Resilience Program...what does this mean for you?
- Steps to develop your business plan
- Support available for putting together your business plan
- Resources to get you started
- Grants and loans currently available through QRIDA
