Taking Grazing to the Next Level
Rodger Savory, accredited consultant with Allan Savory’s

When: Saturday, 3 November 2012
Morning: Kingaroy Research Station
Afternoon: ‘Oakway’ 154 West Coolabunia Rd
Time: 8.30am – 4 pm
Cost: $25 per property, limit 2 people

- Holistic planned ultra-high density grazing
- Increase profit per hectare while building healthy soils.
- Using holistic management to identify the weak link, socially, economically and environmentally.
- Understanding how ‘Wholes’ function

Extensive discussion and question and answer session with Rodger Savory who has over 25 years experience using Holistic Management globally.

Bookings are essential as numbers are limited.
RSVP: Wednesday, 31 October 2012
Vikki Evans / Kay Enkelmann
Phone: 07 4169 0720
Email: vikki.evans@bmrg.org.au

Please indicate any dietary requirements

Please bring your hat, sunscreen, chair and shoes for a paddock walk.

www.savorygrasslandmanagement.com

South Burnett Grazing Network Inc

Burnett Mary Regional Group

Australian Government Landcare Regional Landcare Facilitator

Caring for Our Country

Youthful Action supported by the Burnett Mary Regional Group through funding from the Australian Government’s Caring for our Country program.