

Strategic Change Management

The RCS Succession and Continuity Roadshow

Proudly supported by Grazing BMP Best Management Practices

- Gain insights into Strategic Succession Management
- Hear one family's story of going from broken to breakthrough
- Meet a team of specialists who will help design your succession plan

RCS | John Moor and Claudia Power

RCS has been working with rural family businesses since 1985. Having first-hand experience in their own family businesses, the RCS consultants will be sharing their personal stories along with their professional experience in the area of succession and continuity planning.

Anderssen Lawyers | Kylie Wilson

With extensive experience in succession planning, Kylie is passionate about ensuring that farming families survive the succession process and stay on the land generation after generation. Kylie has the practical experience and legal knowledge to help you make this happen.

Entello | Frank Ricci and Belinda Piccirillo

By developing a tailored "off-farm" investment strategy, Entello demonstrates that using the right tools can provide generational wealth. Gain an understanding of your retirement needs as Entello opens your eyes to key considerations to achieve financial independence.

DAF | Kate Brown and Jo Miller

The Department of Agriculture and Fisheries understand the importance of family succession planning, and are proud to support this event through the Grazing BMP Best Management Practices People and Business Theme.
